

EXAM DEADLINES

For APSCA Member Auditors

PART III EXAM - DEADLINE - MAY 30TH 2023

BOOK YOUR EXAM

Part III Exam deadline is 30th May 2023

- On 30th May RA Auditors will be moved to ASCA if they do not have a Part III exam booked in Calendly.
- This includes RA Auditors who have not booked a Part III exam in Calendly and it is 90+ days since they received their Part II results.
- RA Auditors who have a Part III exam booked and confirmed in Calendly for June, July, August or September will remain at RA until their results are issued.

All reschedules and cancellations must be done in Calendly, the link is on your original Calendly confirmation email.

Please use your ProctorU profile email when booking in Calendly – if you use a different email your exam will not transfer to ProctorU.

1st October 2023 - All RA status Auditors will be moved to ASCA

- RA status will no longer exist from the 1st of October 2023.
- Auditors will remain ASCA until they pass all 3 parts of the exam, at which time they will become CSCA.

New short-term rules apply to Part III exams between the 1st of April until the 30th of September

- Auditors receiving a mark of 75% or above will pass the Part III exam and will be moved to CSCA.
- RA Auditors receiving a mark between 65–74% will fail but retain their RA status.
- RA Auditors receiving a mark below 65% will fail and be moved to ASCA.

Questions? Contact: exams@theapsca.org